

Environmental Policy

Barry Yacht Club

The Barry Yacht Club is committed to the effective management of its Environmental performance, to minimise the impact of our Club and its activities on both the natural environment and the wider community. This commitment is comprehensive and extends to all activities including, The Club House, Boat Storage, Workshops and Slip/Crane lifting.

We are committed to:

- Environmental Management System compliance: Developing and maintaining a comprehensive Environmental Management System, which ensures compliance with all applicable environmental legislation, regulations, codes of practice, and any additional standards to which Barry Yacht Club subscribes.
- Regulatory Compliance: Meeting and where feasible, exceeding the current regulatory requirements imposed on our Club's activities and business.
- Continuous improvement: Prioritising the ongoing improvement of our environment management system and overall performance, while consistently delivering high-quality services to our clients.
- Environmental Education: Training Club members, enabling them to identify potential areas of environmental risk. Member's and visitors are encouraged and supported to implement measures to protect the environment, including the prevention of pollution to land, air and sea, sustainable sourcing and use of resources, and the protection of ecosystems.
- Collaborative Approach: Working closely with suppliers, contractors and other stakeholders to achieve and maintain high standards of environmental management and awareness.
- Community and Stakeholder Engagement: Engaging openly with community, government authorities and recognised special interest groups to share understanding and to cooperate as appropriate.
- Targets, Auditing, and Reporting: setting realistic environmental expectations, targets and objectives. Auditing and reviewing performance against targets and report progress to the Committee.

This Policy is subject to an annual review to ensure it remains relevant and appropriate to the Club. It will be communicated to all Club members and will be clearly displayed on the notice board. All new members will sign to acknowledge they understand and will comply with the Policy.
